

Trinity School Sixth Form Agreement

As a student entering Trinity School Sixth Form you are committing to share our values and expectations. The purpose of this agreement is to help you achieve your potential. The relationship between staff and students must be based on trust, high levels of respect, courtesy and a strong work ethic.

In choosing to attend Sixth Form at Trinity you are agreeing to following –

100% attendance and punctuality to all lessons, enrichment sessions and study periods.

- We will refer to your attendance in any references we give for you.
- You must not take any holiday during term time.
- If you are ill and unable to attend school, you must report this before 8.45am on the morning of each day's absence. It is your responsibility to meet the learning outcomes for that lesson and complete any homework.
- Exceptions will be made for close bereavements, you must communicate with the Sixth Form Office.
- Arrange medical and other private appointments outside of school hours where possible.
- Study periods must be spent on site in a suitable study area in Year 12. In Year 13 those with excellent attendance and who are on track to achieve their target grades may be allowed some flexibility and the option to study at home in these study periods.

Academic Study

- Work must be completed punctually and to the best of your ability.
- You must prepare work for lessons in advance if necessary.
- Communicate with staff about any problems you are experiencing with a subject as soon as possible to receive guidance and extra help.
- For every hour spent in class, there should be an additional hour of independent study outside of the classroom. We expect to see students working hard in their study periods.
- Do not commit to more than 12 hours part-time work each week.

Behaviour & Community

- Exemplify TELLS and the Trinity Way in all that you do.

Appearance

- Your appearance must meet the Sixth Form dress code.
- You must wear your Sixth Form lanyard at all times when on the school grounds. Any lost lanyards will be replaced at a charge.

Worship

- You will attend formal worship once a week.

I have read and agree to abide by the terms of the Sixth Form Agreement to the best of my ability.

Student

Signed:.....Name:.....Date:.....